

ACCL

JOURNAL OF THE

WINTER 2007

American College of Construction Lawyers

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| ■ The U.S. Office Market:
Flirting With Equilibrium | Robert Hess |
| ■ Public Use, Private Power | Randall Block |
| ■ The "As Is" Real Estate Sales Contract –
Who Pays the Piper Between
Execution and Closing? | Edward T. Bullard |
| ■ Financing Leasehold Interests:
How to Manage the Risks | Harry G. Heching |
| ■ Tax Benefits from Seller Financing
and Assumption of Debt | Joseph C. Mandarino |
| ■ Water Quality and Water Quantity:
New Considerations in the
Land Development Equation | Andrea W. Wortzel |
| ■ Internal Revenue Service Issues
Guidance Regarding Participation by Tax-Exempt Organizations in
Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Projects | Michael A. Lehmann |
| ■ The Rising Tide – Flood Insurance
in an Active Hurricane Era | Francis P. Lively |
| ■ Avoiding Pitfalls Associated with Healthcare Facility
Construction Projects | Catherine L. Schnaubelt |
| ■ India – Completing the Investment Universe | Max Beekmann and Dipa Kapas |